DAY 14 – Seoul, South Korea (Deluxe Hotel Stay)

The next day, you'll step into royal history at Changdeokgung Palace, a UNESCO listed treasure celebrated for its harmony with nature and serene secret gardens. After a swotting up on history and connecting with nature, prepare to awaken your senses with a hands-on cooking class at Sejong Culinary Academy, learning to create authentic Korean dishes, before visiting the powerful War Memorial Park, showcasing preserved memorabilia, art works and notable military equipment related to the Korean War. DAY 15 – Seoul, South Korea. Bullet Train to Gyeongju, South Korea (Deluxe Hotel Stay)

After breakfast, you'll visit to the magnificent Gyeongbokgung Palace, a grand symbol of royal heritage, where ornate architecture and sweeping courtyards transport you back in time. Then, you'll stroll through the charming Insadong Street, lined with traditional tea houses, galleries and artisan shops, before finding tranquillity at Jogyesa Temple.

Later that day, experience the thrill of Korea's high-speed bullet train as you glide effortlessly to the coastal city of Gyeongju, for a night's deluxe hotel stay. Here, you'll indulge in a traditional Korean BBQ dinner, featuring tabletop grilling of fresh meats served with rice, kimchi and vegetables! (B,D)

DAY 16 – Gyeongju, South Korea. Transfer to Busan, South Korea (Deluxe Hotel Stay)

The following day unveils Gyeongju's most treasured landmarks including the breath-taking Seokguram Grotto, perched high on the mountainside, and the magnificent Bulguksa Temple! Then, you'll slow the pace with a traditional tea ceremony at Bibibidang Tea House, a serene and mindful experience steeped in centuries-old ritual. Wandering around Gyeongju is like stepping into a living museum without walls, full to the brim with historic sites and ancient relics at every turn. The golden city offers a peaceful escape from the buzz of Seoul, without the cloud-scraping buildings in sight, perfect for pacing slowly from the rapid rhythm of the city.

Continue your adventure as you transfer to Busan, a sun-soaked seaside city backed by stunning nature scenery and glorious beaches. Here, you'll check-in for a 2-night deluxe hotel stay. Dubbed the 'Santorini of Korea,' enjoy your free time soaking in its relaxed beach town vibe, sampling fresh seafood or exploring the illuminated waterfront in the evening. (B)

DAY 17 – Busan, South Korea (Deluxe Hotel Stay)

The next day, discover Busan's coastal beauty, beginning with the spectacular Haedong Yonggungsa Temple, dramatically set against the crashing waves of the sea. Take in panoramic ocean views from Cheongsapo Daritdol Observatory, before unwinding on the golden sands of Haeundae Beach. As your land programme draws to a close, immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere of Haeundae Traditional Market, where you'll get a taste of delicious Korean-style street food, sharing flavours and laughter with your fellow travellers and guides. (B)

DAY 18 – Busan, South Korea. Fly to UK

Your culture-rich South Korean land adventure comes to a memorable end in Busan. As you fly back to the UK, you'll carry home with you a heart and camera filled with incredible memories made in the Land of the Morning Calm.
